

Are You Facing Challenging Questions in Your Work with Families?

Do you often wonder what to do?

This Training Might Be the Answer!

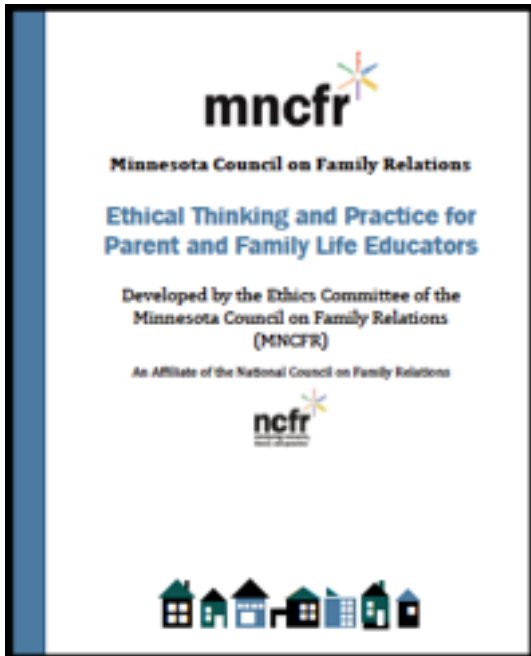

Ethical Thinking and Practice for Parent and Family Life Educators

by

The Minnesota Council on Family Relations (MNCFR)

You will learn:

- Ethical perspectives for working with families
- Ethical principles for parent and family life educators and other family professionals
- A case study process for addressing challenging situations

It's Easy to Bring this Training to You!

- Ask your agency or district to host one of these continuing education workshops.
- Workshop fee is $500 for 40 participants and includes 3 hours of training by family life educators.
- Workshop fee includes a copy of the NEW Ethical Thinking and Practice for Parent and Family Life Educators booklet and all training materials for each participant.

We offer clock hours for educators and social workers and CEU's for CFLE's.

Contact us by phone at 612-801-8811 or by email at td4mcfcr@gmail.com for further information about hosting or attending a workshop.

The booklet is also available for individual purchase at <http://mn.ncfr.org>